

Pinellas Park Church of Christ

A Legacy of Courage

Today we continue our series of “legacy” lessons that ask, “What will you leave to the next generation spiritually?” How do you approach your Christianity every day? Do those around you get the impression from your life that you are on fire for God? Are you living in spiritual mediocrity? Does the idea of “making mistakes” overpower your willingness to live out your faith? Is your faith spoken loudly and boldly for all to see?

1. Peter was always zealous to be with Jesus

2. Peter's zeal lead to excitement and services

3. Peter's zeal was sparked by adversity

Is yours a legacy one of zeal?

Minute Devotionals

Zeal, like fire, while a great tool and benefit to all, can also be very damaging if not controlled and moved in a right direction. Peter is a perfect example of this. His zeal is amazing and leads him to do some incredible things, but also leads him to a place where Christ calls him “Satan” and demands he get behind him.
