How You Pray

For the next couple of weeks we will be talking about the manner in which we pray. The Bible shares a great deal of insight in some direct and indirect teaching about prayer and how we can effectively use it to tap into the power that our Father says it can be in our lives. We will begin this week in the same context that we have been using for the series.

Matthew 6:5-8

I. Don't Be Like the Heathen

II. Do Focus on the Father

III. Do Make Your Requests Known with Simplicity and humility

Conclusion – The “how” of prayer can greatly affect the outcome of prayer. Let us be sure that we are praying correctly to our Father who meets all our needs.

Minute Devotionals

How you treat others can affect your prayer life. Prayers offered that spring from dysfunction in our relationships with others, when we have not sought resolution with them will not be heard. Prayers of forgiveness will not be heard if we are unwilling to forgive. Prayers offered by husbands who mistreat family and wives will be cut off and not heard.
