Announcements

- Today many of our members will be leaving to be a part of the 2019 PPCOC week of camp. The theme for the Pinellas Park week will be "Resistance is Fertile." We will begin our week on June 9 and end June 16. However, there will also be four additional weeks of camp held during the summer. Freed Hardeman University students will be coming to help hold these subsequent weeks, but we could use your help as well. If you would like to work in the kitchen or in some other capacity at the camp this summer please see Chris Brush or Phillip Martin and they will be able to give you greater detail about each one of these weeks of camp.

- Our theme for 2019 is - IN: INdebted, INtune, INvested, INcluded. Servant leaders be sure to check the weekly schedules to serve. We have just entered the second quarter of the year (for preaching, not classes) and will now be focusing on being INTune with God's purposes.
- The new teaching quarter will begin on June 2nd. Those who would like to be involved in teaching see Todd Monahan asap.
- Ladies class meets every Friday at 1 PM in room 100.
